

WEBSITE PRIVACY POLICY

This Privacy Policy is intended to explain how information about you is collected and used when you enter www.gazetkowo.pl website (“Website”) and our social media page (“Social Media”) on Facebook.

1. GENERAL INFORMATION

Our Website and Social Media allow you to browse the current offers and check relevant information of selected retailers, contact us directly or otherwise interact with us.

Our Website allows you also to:

- subscribe to the newsletter;
- create an account;
- benefit from discount coupons.

When you visit our Website or our Social Media we may collect certain information about you which may be considered personal data. Below you will find a detailed information about what information we may have about you and how we use it, as well as how to control your preferences with regard to such use.

2. WHAT DATA DO WE COLLECT

We may collect two main groups of data in connection with your use of the Website or Social Media:

- Information you provide us voluntarily when registering or logging into an account, subscribing to the newsletter or contacting us directly e.g. by means of dedicated tools or private messages, as well as when posting comments on our Social Media or otherwise interacting with the content we publish (likes, follows, shares, survey answers etc.);

The scope of such information will depend on the type of interaction and may include: your name, logging details, e-mail address, content of messages you send us, etc. In the Social Media, each message you send or post you publish will include the name of your Social Media profile, which is likely to be your full name, as well as your profile picture, the date of interaction, and a link to your Social Media profile.

- Information collected automatically by our Website e.g. by means of cookies or other tracking technologies.

Such information is recorded under a unique identification number (e.g. cookie ID) we assign to your browser or device and include: (1) data related to your activity on a Website along with timestamps recording moment of particular events, (2) technical information about the browser or device you are using; (3) IP address indicating your non-specific geographic location e.g. country or region.

This data does not directly disclose your identity – it only identifies the browser or device you use to enter our Website and allows us to measure the use of our Website and personalize its content and our ads to that browser or device, as described below.

Please note that Social Media platforms may collect other data in connection with your use of those platforms. Please consult their privacy policies to learn more.

3. HOW DO WE USE YOUR DATA

We use the collected data to:

- answer your queries

For this purpose we use the data you provide us voluntarily. For example, if you send us a message via a contact form or by on-site chat bot tool on our Website or in a direct message on Social Media, we will process your contact data and the content of such message to handle your query, provide you with relevant information and remember what the query was about.

- run our Website properly

We achieve this by means of necessary cookies. These include technical cookies required by our system to ensure security of our Website and make certain elements accessible and operational. We may set necessary cookies without your specific consent. You may delete them and disable subsequent setting in your browser settings, however, this may prevent certain websites from displaying properly.

- personalize the content of our Website

Preferences cookies are used to adjust the Website to your preferences, so that you do not have to adjust the settings each time you enter the Website. We use them, for instance, to remember your account data, so that you do not have to enter your login and password each time you visit the Website, or favorite items you selected.

We also display our offers to you based on your non-specific location data derived from a hashed IP address or based on your browsing activity on the website.

- analyze the use of our Website and Social Media pages

On our Website, the statistics cookies help us know how you interact with the content we publish, so that we may monitor and improve Website's functionalities. Statistic cookies may store information such as time and duration of your visit, subpages you entered, items you clicked etc.

To conduct these analyses, we use third party tools, such as Google Analytics. It uses the data stored in a cookie related to the device or browser, IP address and on-site activities to measure and report statistics about your interactions with our Website. Please note, that Google may link this information with data related to your activity from other sites that use Google Analytics.
